

I use close captioning at all times (severely hearing impaired). In most cases it is well done, however, occasionally the captioning is so poorly spelled that it is difficult to follow (sometimes adds an element of humor). TV viewing/hearing would be impossible without it.
Thank you for the opportunity to comment. Janice Woodson